

CRITERIA 2

2.3.5 Continual mentoring is provided by teachers for developing professional attributes in students

2.3.5 Continual mentoring is provided by teachers for developing professional attributes in students

The nature of mentoring efforts in the Institution is very active. Each teacher works as mentor. The Teacher – mentor helps guide the students –

- Special effort put in by teachers in accordance with learner needs. Mentor – teacher help students when they seek support at all moments, when needed.
- Management itself and motivated active teachers take it as an institutionalized activity in accordance with learner direct/indirect needs.

WORKING IN TEAMS

As team work leads to attainment of growth and success. Thus, efforts are made by the mentors to develop student's capabilities of working in teams. Guidance is provided to students like:

- Developing students' listening and speaking skills.
- Having positive attitude towards things
- Focusing on strength of team members
- Show gratitude Accept and Appreciate differences
- Sharing Responsibilities with colleagues

It is expected practicing all this in professional life will lead to effective team work by the students.

DEALING WITH STUDENT DIVERSITY

Being future teachers it is very important for students at Shri L.P. Raval College of Education and Research that they should know how to deal with student diversity in actual classroom environment. Thus Mentors suggest different ways to deal with student diversity:

- Divide students into slow and advance learners
- Provide remedial classes to weak students
- Engage students in Collaborative task

CONDUCT OF SELF WITH COLLEAGUES AND AUTHORITIES

As it is essential to have a decent relationship with colleagues and authorities at work place, mentor, guide the would be teachers for the same:

- Respect people
- Find a way to get along with everyone at workplace
- Practice good etiquettes while communicating with colleagues and authorities
- Practice good etiquettes related to personal hygiene
- Be kind to colleagues

BALANCING HOME AND WORK STRESS

Being in any profession brings lots of responsibilities along with it. After completing B.Ed. programme the student's enter schools and it brings lots of challenges to adjust home with work. Lots of stress of maintaining balance between the two is a common issue. Thus the students' does not suffer with any of such stress. Mentors at Shri L.P. Raval College of Education and Research work for the welfare of students by guiding them for the same.

- Prioritize your time
- Set manageable goals each day
- Be realistic at home and work place
- Practice meditation and yoga
- Be efficient with your time

KEEPING ONESELF ABREAST WITH RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN EDUCATION AND LIFE

Keeping oneself updated with recent developments in education and life is very important for intellectual development. Thus mentors motivate students to:

- Read Educational journals, magazines, blogs etc.
- Search for websites which provide more specific topic oriented articles
- Follow the news in the world
- Attend different Seminars

Thus, Mentors at Shri L.P. Raval College of Education and Research maintain a cordial relationship with the Mentees and are always inclined to help in developing the professional capabilities of their students.

Mentor-Mentees Activities

Mentoring on:

SEMESTER I

- To mentor students for ICT utilization
- mentor students for social work, community activities
- Guidance to understand PLOs + CLOs
- Counseling to individual student
- To mentor students for cultural activities, sports activities
- Remedial lectures for slow learner

ICT was new to the students, some of them even didn't have a computer at home, so with such students basics of computers had to be taught. Students were given hands-on experience of the same. This helped them to be more proficient in ICT assignments.

Community work activities were undertaken during the period of internship. The mentor-mentee decided the community activities that has to be conducted.

The mentors were assigned the mentee for the semester. The mentors were chosen as per the academic record. Since B.Ed. is a new curriculum, core papers were new to them hence the mentoring basically focused on content preparation for the topics.

The mentors guided and counseling the individual student in academic subjects growth as well as in their academic and personal problems.

Cultural activities and sports activities were undertaken during the B.Ed. programme. The mentor-mentee decided the cultural and sports activities that has to be conducted in the college.

Remedial teaching is the use of activities, techniques and practices to eliminate weaknesses or deficiencies that the slow learner is known to have. Tutorials were conducted separately for slow learners for effective curriculum delivery by the mentors.

Mentoring on:

SEMESTER II

- Guidance for choice of courses
- Guidance for choice of elective subjects including pedagogy courses

PRINCIPAL
EDUCATION & RESEARCH
Raval Nagar, Mira Road (E).

- Guidance for Curriculum planning

The students were introduced to the pedagogy of school subject for the first time in their B.Ed. programme. Hence, they were given guidance regarding the content matter, the mentor helped the mentee to be well versed in the content, content test and lesson planning. Since this was the first time the internship was done with students it was important that they receive enough guidance from the method master (teacher incharge). The mentee shared their experiences during shadowing of lesson observation for school/college teachers this has helped them in lesson planning.

The mentor guided mentees for curriculum planning that includes both curriculum development and instructional design. So the mentees were taught how curriculum planning can be done using highly specific activity focused on methods of teaching and learning. □

Mentoring on:

SEMESTER III

- To guide students forevaluation system
- Guidance for the students to acquire and demonstrate knowledge,skills, values and attitudes
- To provide inter connectedness of the various learning engagements of students

The mentor helped the mentee to prepare the lesson plans by giving suggestions of activities and developmental questions. The ideas of theme based lessons were planned and accordingly the same was presented in the class. The principal paired the mentor and mentee for this semester based on their methods as the period of internship was quite long (11 weeks) and the mentor-mentee will be able to spend quality time in school thereby working the weak areas and focus of improvement.

Administration of unit test that comprised of Blue Print, Question paper, etc. were prepared in consensus.

Mentoring on:

SEMESTER IV

- Familiarizes studentswith the diversities inschool system
- To guide for learning enhancement
- To mentor students for cultural activities, sports activities
- To guide students for scholarship, progression, personalitydevelopment of professional development of as a teacher

IC4 Creating an Inclusive School, this paper was new for mentees. Hence it was a rigorous mentoring that happened between the mentors and mentees so that students get familiarizes with the diversities in school system.

The mentor helped the mentee to prepare the questions for the action research to be conducted as a part of the University Internal assessment. The topics were decided and the questions were framed together for collecting data from the students in the school/college. The chapterisation work was done by the mentor-mentee together and hurdles if faced were further solved. The final report was prepared and checked by the mentor and final submission was made to the method master.

Personal and professional development is vital for a chance for professional development as a teacher. It involves learning new skills and gaining key interpersonal skills. The mentors guided mentees for personality development for professional development as a teacher through workshops, in-class observation, seminars.
